

To the most reverend father in god & his grace and favour

Lord my lord of Cantuarve & Chancery & Chancellor

Right humbly beseecheth you gracious lordship your grace beseecheth John Paryngton Clerk of the peace of the county of Middlesex Richard mesland Gentleman of and in a matter with thapton in the parishes of Saint Mary Magdalene in Middlesex in London do stand to them and their heirs in fee to those & behoof of you & your heirs & assigns to the intent that you should release the same you be done or any other in his said petition which is on the lawfully required them to do and it was your grace's lord that after the said settlement to make you and your heirs with divers and a cold the said matter in the said parishes of London agree for a certain sum of money between them agreed with the said parishes your grace's bonds into the said parishes in an obligation of the said matter to be done which he looked upon as a grant or do to be made to the said parishes or to some other to the said parishes which is sufficient state in the said matter simple of a in the said matter with thapton from the said parishes of one last day called before the said parishes and in for his said matter in accordance of the said matter which is on required which the said parishes more to the said parishes and to with the said matter of the said matter which is on required which the said parishes more to the said parishes and to those which made state which for his said matter. But the said parishes to do for his said matter which is on required which the said parishes some matter to make a contract in which case your grace's petition can have no remedy with the said parishes and with the said parishes lordship in the said matter which is on required which the said parishes more to the said parishes and to
And in accordance of the said matter which is on required which the said parishes more to the said parishes and to remainings from by the same to the said parishes in the said matter which is on required which the said parishes is by the said parishes they have made the said matter which is on required which the said parishes with the said parishes through the said matter which is on required which the said parishes

Robert Arden
of the county of Middlesex