

fideles administrando eade in forma meo iurato et salvo iure ministerii

In the name of god Amen The xxijth day of May in the yere of our lord god of 15th year and in the xxijth yere of the Reigne of ourc sovereign lord King Henry the viijth I William Marland Citizen of of London being hole of memory and in good mynd land and free be unto almighty god make orderyd and declare thys my last Testament and last will in maner and forme following ffyrste I comende my soule unto almighty god and my body to be buryed at such place wherof shall fortune me to dyscease and the funerally to be don by the discrecion of myne exequiers hereunder wyrtten Item I will that myne exequiers shall distribute and geve to my poore men myn goodes in money
The residue of all myne goodes debts and charges (my debts wherof I have tenly contentyd and payed) I holdy freely and fully geve and bequethe unto myn daughter Marland my wellbelovyd wyfe To be had unto hir and hir exequiers and assignes foren she therwith to do and dispose her own free will and pleasure wherof I make and orderyd my last and faythfull exequiers of thys my last Testament and last will In wytnes wherof to thys my last Testamente and last will I have set my sealle daye and yere abovesaid Then being spent I Bonethen Francis p^rse Richard Parker and John Hyde wth other

T William
Marland

Probatum fuit supscriptu testamentu coram magistro Johanne Long commissario vi^{mo} die mensis Junij anno dⁿⁱ millimo quingentesimo xxxi^o at p^r e^{ius} approbati et n^ofirmati et commissarij fuit administrans omnia et singula p^r dicti exequierum sup^rsc^ripti et in forma meo iurato et salvo iure ministerii viijth day of June

In witness

John Long commissary

T William